

Protection of life, health, safety and welfare of Arizona's most valuable assets.

Arizona Division of Occupational Safety and Health and Pima Community College

TUCSON SAFETY SUMMIT

PimaCommunityCollege

May 29 - 30, 2019
Wednesday and Thursday

7:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Pima Community
College - West Campus

2202 W. Anklam Road,
Tucson, AZ 85745

■ KEYNOTE PRESENTATION:

“Would You Watch Out For My Safety?”

John W. Drebing Jr., Motivational Speaker and Author of "Would You Watch Out for My Safety?"

■ CLASSES:

OSHA 10-Hour General Industry / OSHA10-Hour Construction (English/Spanish) / CPR, AED & First Aid Certification / Electrical Safety Awareness / OSHA 300 Log Recordkeeping / Trenching & Excavation / Assessing for Personal Protective Equipment / Confined Space Awareness / Forklift Train-the-Trainer / Scaffolds in the Workplace / Discrimination Investigations (English/Spanish) / How to Teach Safety / Fall Protection (English/Spanish) and More

■ TO REGISTER:

- Registration for all classes begins April 1, 2019
- www.ezregister.com/promoters/1607

■ SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS:

- OSHA 10-Hour classes have limited seating (maximum of 30) and require an $8 fee for card generation per student, register online to reserve your seat
- CPR & First Aid class has limited seating (maximum of 35) available and requires a $29 certification per student, register online to reserve your seat

SUMMIT CONTRIBUTORS

